The New Normal? Let's think and act, together.

25 years ago, the GCSP began its journey advancing peace and security around the world. Today in 2020, our unique international community of experts, decision-makers and key players is a powerful source of knowledge, innovation and leadership, with a real ability to make a difference.

The New Normal? Let's think and act, together.

We invite you to start now!

Join us for a multitude of entirely customisable digital experiences including webinars, panels, Q&A interactions, discussions and more. Happening across the globe from 25 to 27 November featuring insights from over 50 experts in peace and security.

As we learn from the past, navigate the present and prepare for future security challenges, we know that #OnlyTogether we can create a safer world.

“In all that we do, we stress that collaboration, creativity and trust are indispensable. They may be hard to achieve, but they are worth fighting for.”
