

Rules and Regulations for the 2020 GCSP 25 Leaders and Influencers in Peace and Security

1. All nominations should be made in English
2. The GCSP 25 Leaders and Influencer in Peace and Security is intended to encourage and recognise members of the GCSP's global network for their outstanding contribution to advancing peace and security.
3. The GCSP reserves the right to disqualify any application from further consideration.
4. Applications submitted via any other channel than the website's nomination forms will not be considered.
5. The deadline for submission of nomination is Sunday, 22 November 2020 at midnight CET, and the finalists will be notified on Tuesday, 24 November 2020. The public list will be made available on Friday, 27 November 2020.
6. The organisers reserve the right to cancel the GCSP 25 Leaders and Influencers in Peace and Security at any time.
7. The list is created and published by the Geneva Centre for Security Policy (GCSP) as part of its 25th anniversary celebrations.
8. A panel of GCSP experts will evaluate and attribute a score to each valid nomination received. After an initial review by the organisers, the most complete submissions will then be passed to a Nomination Review Committee, which will be co-chaired by organisers, for their consideration.
9. All decisions made by the organisers in relation to the list are final and no correspondence concerning decisions will be entered into.
10. The nominated individual(s) agree to have his/her/their name(s) published for promotion purposes along with a description of the reasons for nomination, and to be available for media requests including photographs and interviews.
11. If a finalist is announced but is disqualified for any reason before the list is published, the organisers may at their sole discretion declare another finalist in their place.
12. The organisers will keep personal details submitted with the application for a reasonable time so that contact can be taken up with nominees and nominators, to verify that these rules have been complied with. An 'opt out' policy regulates the marketing communication, and if the nominator wishes to subsequently unsubscribe from receiving information, they should contact the GCSP directly.
13. Nominations must be submitted via the online nomination form in order to be considered for the list and shall include a. nominator's full name, company, email address; b. nominee's full name, job title, email address, nationality/country of residence, sector, LinkedIn profile; c. nominator's relationship to nominee; d. nominee's link to the GCSP; e. reasons for nomination based on the criteria (max 500 words in length).
14. The finalists will be selected by the Nomination Review Committee, and selection will be based on the following criteria: a. Impact b. Leadership c. Collaboration d. Influence e. GCSP Values f. GCSP Contribution
15. The organisers reserve the right to oblige any potential finalist to provide information such that the organisers might be satisfied with the rigour and integrity of the work, as well as the compliance of the project with the goal maintaining GCSP values of inclusion, impartiality and independence.

16. The GCSP will not pass on any personal details to any other organisation, with the sole exception of naming the finalists and publicising the finalists in accordance with these rules and regulations.
17. The organisers are not liable for any damage, loss or disappointment suffered by any person taking part or not being able to take part.
18. The organisers reserve the right to amend the rules and regulations. If the rules and regulations are amended, the organisers will contact those who have already submitted nominations and update them about the altered rules.
19. Nomination implies acceptance of these rules, and all nominators agree to be bound by them upon submitting a nomination.
