

MUKHTAR ABDI OGLE, OGW, EBS

Mr. Mukhtar A. Ogle, Secretary, Strategic Initiatives Department of Cabinet Affairs Office in Executive Office of the President.

He has previously worked with Kenya National Examination Council as the Principal Examinations Secretary Research; The National Research Coordinator; Senior Research Officer and Deputy National Coordinator, National Assessment Centre. He is a trained teacher, examination assessment and management expert with over 20 years' experience.

Mr. Ogle has a Masters in Public Administration (Harvard University) and Fellowship in Public Policy Analysis and Management from Harvard Kennedy School of Government, USA. He also has M.A. in Community Studies from Loughborough University, United Kingdom in addition to Bachelor of Education (Arts) from Kenyatta University.

Mr. Ogle has a proven record of managing complex projects within the country and cross border communities by providing leadership and direction. He has managed and mentored staff, established youth networks across all the 47 counties in Kenya and mentored thousands of youths who are now champions in peacebuilding, innovation, and successful entrepreneurs. Some of the youth he was worked with have received state commendations as change makers in the community.